An Ipswich mother, who allowed her son to go on holiday during school term, has been fined £400 after her son repeatedly refused to go to school. The 36 year old mother, who cannot be named for legal reasons, appeared before South East Suffolk Magistrates Court yesterday where magistrates heard that her 14 year old son was currently on holiday in Spain. The boy has had 145 unauthorized absences. His absences were blamed on a late-night life style. Chairman of the bench David Coe asked her if she thought she could get her son to school in future. " Yes I think I can with some help," she said.

Yesterday's case is the second to be dealt with by South East Suffolk magistrates recently. Last month a 37 year old was fined £50 after her son had attended just 16 out of 182 sessions.

And the cases follow national concern after an Oxfordshire mother was jailed for allowing her children to miss school.
